MEMORANDUM FOR [REDACTED] DIRECTOR, NATIONAL INDICATIONS
CENTER, Room BC956, Pentagon

Subject: Intelligence Collection in the Soviet Union

Encl: (1) U. S. Naval Attache Moscow Information Report 29-S-61 of 15 March 1961 (S)

1. Captain R. L. Taylor, with whom you have discussed enclosure (1), has asked that someone with recent familiarity with intelligence collection problems in the Soviet Union be made available to you for consultation. The Author of enclosure (1), Colonel Leo J. Dulacki, USMC, is presently on duty in Moscow and will be returning to the United States in late June or early July of this year. In our opinion Colonel Dulacki has shown great skill and perception in his assignment as Assistant and Acting Naval Attache in Moscow and is exceptionally well qualified to discuss local conditions with you. When the dates of his availability in the Pentagon become firm, I will call you to arrange whatever interviews you may desire.
